DON CARLOS STILL DEFIANT.

[By Telegraph.]

LONDON, May 10.—William Patrick Adams will succeed Sir Robert Peel as Liberal "whip."

MADRID, May 10.—The question of the reorganization of the government is the absorbing topic at Madrid at present. Marshal Serrano says that he will form a better cabinet than the existing one, but he has deferred consideration of the subject till his health, which is improving, is completely restored.

PARIS, May 10.—Late severe frosts have done considerable damage to vines throughout the country. It is estimated that the grape crop for the present year will not be above one-half of an average one.

LONDON, May 11.—A dispatch from Bayonne says that Don Carlos has issued a proclamation announcing that he will offer strenuous resistance to the republican army in the Biscay provinces.

Lieutenant-General Sir Archibald Wilson, knighted for service at the capture of Delhi, in 1857, is dead.

THE SWINDLER LITTLEFIELD.

REWARD OF $5,000 OFFERED FOR HIS APPREHENSION.

THE FLORIDIAN GOVERNORS SHIELD HIM.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

SAVANNAH, May 10.—Governor Caldwell, of North Carolina, publishes a notice in the Morning News that the reward of $5,000 offered for General M. S. Littlefield some years since will be paid to any one delivering him to the Sheriff of Buncombe county. Littlefield was implicated in the swindles in North Carolina in 1868, and ran away to Florida, where he has been engaged in doubtful railroad transactions. The several Governors of Florida have refused to recognize requisions for him.

THE FLOOD.

MEMPHIS, May 11.—The steamer Cheek from below brings important news regarding the overflow of the Mississippi. At 9 o'clock yesterday morning the levee in front of Friar's Point, on the Mississippi, broke at Maynard's and Miller's. The former crevasse is one hundred yards wide, and the latter fifty, and as the water outside the levee was fully five feet above the level, the inside water poured through in immense volumes, defying all attempts to check it, and soon inundated the town and surrounding country. The crevasses will inundate very large sections of cotton lands.

The St. Francis was stationary yesterday, and the levee on the Arkansas side still held good. About two thousand hands are now engaged in strengthening this levee, but the river made a cut-off yesterday at Council Bend, cutting off some fourteen miles, and in consequence the river is rising below the cut-off at the rate of one inch per hour.

Further news from Helena is anxiously looked for.

The House passed a bill appropriating [illegible] for the improvement of the Oostanaula river in Georgia.

The Senate bill for the better organization of the United States District Courts in Louisiana was recommitted to the Judiciary Committee.

ARKANSAS.

A SETTLEMENT PROPOSED BY THE PRESIDENT.

BAXTER DECLINES TO SUBMIT.

THE FIGHT RECOMMENCED.

CANNON PLANTED, AND ENTRENCHMENTS THROWN UP.

A GENERAL APPEARANCE OF WAR.

THE FEDERAL TROOPS TAKING ACTIVE MEASURES.

[By Telegraph to the Constitution.]

WASHINGTON, May 10.—At a very late hour last night a plan of adjustment for the serious troubles in Arkansas was telegraphed from this city to both of the disputants for the office of Governor of that State. Their representatives and attorneys had been in session all day yesterday, and were also with the Attorney General at his private residence up to midnight last night, discussing methods which would receive the approval of the general government. It has now been agreed that both parties call a session of the Legislature to meet at Little Rock on the fourth Monday in May, each to make a special call. No opposition is to be made by either party, and receive the claims of Brooks in opposition to Baxter. Both parties are to have a full hearing, and the Legislature to determine who received a majority in 1872. Both Governors are to disarm, with the exception of a body-guard, and to abstain from all warlike movements and from all interference with each other or their adherents.

The Attorney General has dispatched to both parties the telegram of which the above is the substance, saying that it was submitted for the approval of the contestants and expresses a hope that it would settle the question.

LITTLE ROCK, May 10.—Baxter refuses to accede to the propositions submitted by the Attorney-General of the United States for the settlement of the pending difficulties, giving the following reasons: That he submitted substantially the same propositions to Brooks some time ago and they were rejected, Brooks announcing that he would have nothing to do with the Legislature; that it had no jurisdiction, and he would not recognize it or anything it might do.

Baxter alleges that there is a quorum of the Legislature now here assembled under his call. With the President's assurance of protection they will meet to-morrow and determine the question. He will recommend the will of a Constitutional Convention, with the view of resubmitting the whole question to the vote of the people.

Brooks has not signified what he will do, but from the position heretofore taken by him it is believed he too will refuse to accede to the Attorney Generals proposed settlement.

LITTLE ROCK, May 10.—Forty shots have been fired, and one negro killed. The Federal troops again brought the hook and ladder company apparatus to the front, when the hostilities ceased. The Federals are entrenching. All the stores are closed, and the women and children have moved from the vicinity of the State House.

LITTLE ROCK, May 11.—Federal Colonel Rose has ordered the restoration of the steamer Hattie to her owners. The Brooksites scuttled her, and she sank to her hurricane deck.

Both parties have been reinforced, the lines closer drawn, and more cannon planted.

A number of Senators and Representatives have appealed to the President for protection in their assembling.

NEW YORK, May 11.—A Little Rock special dated last evening, contains the following: Two negroes were killed by Baxter's pickets near the fair grounds yesterday morning. In the evening several skirmishers advanced up the street and joined Baxter's pickets, when the officer in command ordered all citizens to their homes and the soldiers to their quarters. The regulars are kept close at the barricades, and a fight was expected at any time during the evening. In the evening there are two companies of regulars at the City Hall, one at the United States Court building and artillery with horses harnessed on a side street. The regulars have four barricades in the city and one on the opposite side of the river. Orders were issued by all parties yesterday for the soldiers to go to their quarters and the citizens to keep in their houses. Col. White, of Baxter's forces, rode to the outskirts of the city and the regulars followed shortly after.

Methodist Episcopal Conference.

REPORTS OF THE VARIOUS COMMITTEE'S.

REPLY TO THE "PEACE" COMMISSION.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

LOUISVILLE, May 10.—The proceedings of the general Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church to-day were mainly in relation to reports from committees. Among them was a report from a Committee on Itineracy, upon memorial from the Louisiana Conference, praying for the creation of a German conference in the South, and recommended also the recommendation that the stay of preachers in one place be limited to four years. A law was also recommended that the superannuated preachers be included in the district conferences in which they reside. The committee on Sunday Schools recommended a continuation of Sunday School Secretaryship. The committee to reply to the proposition of the Methodist Episcopal Church made yesterday was announced.

"CHARITY."

CONVOCATION OF THE SISTERS OF CHARITY.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

BALTIMORE, May 11.—The fifth Quintennial Convocation of the Sisters of Charity of North America, was inaugurated yesterday at the St. Joseph Convent, near Emmittsburg, in Frederick county. About 350 sisters, comprising superioresses of asylums, hospitals and other institutions at San Francisco, Boston, Buffalo, New Orleans and other cities, representing with but few exceptions every American diocese, were present at the inaugural ceremonies. The Japan Gazette says; "Something like book-criticism and reviewing appears to be in process of development in the Japanese native newspapers. A short time ago an elementary grammar of the Japanese language, by two native Japanese scholars, was published. Some critic has been reading it, and finds several things in it with which he does not agree, and he writes to that effect to the editor of the Nichi Nichi Shimbun."

Mobile Register: "One of the chief attractions at the fair grounds is the old war horse who went through the service with the State artillery. He is kept in a comfortable stall, is well attended to, and seems highly pleased with the change in his temporal condition. From a sumpter-horse on a cotton plantation, he has jumped into the full-blown hero, but bears his honors meekly, and is an example to vain-glorious humanity. A cloth strapped to his back bears in printed letters the names of the battles in which he figured: Shiloh, Farmington, Mumfordsville, Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge, Resaca, New Hope Church, Lost Mountain, Camp Wild Cat, Marietta, Atlanta, Jonesboro, Franklin, and Nashville."

Grant owes his election to the Presidency to his non-election to the surveyorship of St. Louis county, Missouri. If he had been elected surveyor he wouldn't have gone to Galena, he wouldn't have been appointed Colonel of an Illinois regiment, and he wouldn't have been accidentally tumbled along upward as he was. He would have gone into the army as the sutler of a Missouri battalion, would have been drummed out of the camp for smuggling whisky into it, and would to day have been handling hides in a country tanyard at a salary of forty dollars a month. It is very curious, the way fate and fortune sometimes shape things.

The wisdom of our new charter in limiting the power to issue the city's bonds to a fixed and reasonable amount, may be read in current Memphis affairs. The last batch of Memphis bonds, $67,000, only netted the city $17,789 17!—the remaining $49,210 being a matter of discount. In other words, Memphis securities are worth 27 cents on the dollar.

Little Switzerland has adopted a new constitution by a majority of 135,000 votes The result is a political consolidation of the several cantons. The new constitution provides for compulsory primary education of a secular character in all the cantons; for a central university, free to students of all creeds; and for the protection of citizens against the encroachments of ecclesiastical authority. Marriage is not to be refused hereafter "on any moral or religious ground," and no citizen is to be made to suffer any penalty on account of his religious opinions. The central power is given control over the military forces of each canton. There is great rejoicing under the shadows of the Alpine peaks over the adoption of the new code.

Annual Meeting Library Association.

The members of the Y. M. L. A. must not forget the annual meeting at the Library Rooms to-night. Let there be a full attendance to hear the reports of officers and make nominations for a new Board.

Our Specials.

Mobile, Ala., has been the scene of a most horrible outrage and awful retribution, as will be seen by the full details given in our special.

Our Washington correspondent telegraphs the passage in the House of appropriations for the Oostanaula and Savannah.

Hon. John H. James.

Quite a number of our exchanges, both in and out of the State have been very complimentary of this gentlemen in connection with his recent card, stating that he was no candidate for office, but enunciating his platform. The Lynchburg (Va) Republican speaks very highly of his platform—thinks he could go to Congress on it in that region.

Our Public School System.

Perhaps Atlanta can boast no prouder achievement than our magnificent public school system; and the rapidity with which it has sprung toward a state of perfection, has elicited the admiration of sister cities and accomplished much for our city. There seems to be some dissatisfaction as to the high school feature of the system, but it is by no means so general as to call for any discussion at our hands. Should it appear necessary, however, we shall at once take hold of the matter in earnest.

The Press Association.

If there ever was a time when there should be a full meeting of the Press Association of Georgia, that time is the present. Matters of the utmost importance are to be discussed, questions involving the policy, usefulness and value of the Association. The Constitution is a strong believer in the purposes and objects of the Association, and in its power to accomplish good. It has done much in the past to elevate the journalism of Georgia, to cement the editorial brotherhood, and advance the general interests of the people. We join in the appeal to all our brethren to meet at Macon. That city is central, hospitable and in itself well worthy of a visit. Let us all go. The Constitution shall certainly be represented.

An Important Omission.

Through pure inadvertance the list of suggested Senatorial candidates was not published in Sunday morning's article. We hasten to supply the omission:

For Senator, 35th District, Clayton county.—J. B. Tanner, W. L. Watterson, W. A. Tigner, and J. L. Doyal; Cobb county—Geo. N. Lester, and W. D. Anderson; Fulton county—Dr. Redwine, Sidney Dell, and E. P. Howell.

Once more the subject of printing the list of aspirants for Representative honors from Fulton county has agitated the editorial mind, and once more we are compelled to beg release from the herculean task. Nor is it right to print such a list. It would amount to an infringement upon the profits and well-earned claims of the gentlemen who compiled our excellent city directory.

An Editorial Invasion.

The editors of New York State, to the number of about sixty, have accepted a invitation extended by the Alabama Editorial Association. The large party of quill-drivers will reach Louisville, after a shor stay in Cincinnati, on the 15th inst. They propose to stop over at the Mammoth Cav and Nashville, and on the 19th, will be du in Birmingham, Alabama, where they are t be the guests of the Alabama editors, wh will then be in session. After viewing th hills of coal and iron about that youthful city, they will probably accept the proffered hospitalities of Huntsville and Montgomery.

The route home from Montgomery has not been determined. And right here we suggest the propriety of official action on the part of Atlanta. These New York gentlemen periodically talk to a very wide audience. Their lines are read in every section of the North. They have heard much of the thrift, the enterprise, the go-ahead-itiveness of Atlanta, for our city has a peculiar reputation in the North—one that a little generous hospitality on our part will not injure in the least. Should we not, therefore, greet these New York editors cordially, and invite them to tarry?

The Bankrupt Moses.

The telegraph informed us, last week, that a petition had been filed in the United States Court at Charleston, asking for the decree of bankruptcy against Franklin Moses, Jr., now and for some time past a Governor of South Carolina, and a prominent leader in the army of blacks and thieves which is running that fair State. It is well known that he has had large opportunities for plundering; that his wicked partners in the systematic unscrupulous robbery of the property-holders, have all became rich, and that the proceeds of a large amount of conversion bonds have mysteriously disappeared. Moses occupied a high place among the men who transacted all this business. They got rich—he is an involuntary bankrupt, and the court has enjoined the sheriff of Richland county from seizing or selling his property. The questions that naturally arise are these: Has Moses been an honest man? or is this a trick? If the latter, he must be trying to prove that he can hide as successfully as he has stolen.

As a piece of curious reading we give a statement of his debts and assets, as we find them in the Augusta Constitutionalist:

|---|---|
| Due General Preston on "Mansion" | $ 20,000 |
| Due Hardy Solomon (borrowed money) | 30,000 |
| Due General Dennis | 30,000 |

| Divers restaurant keepers, shoemakers and "shysters" | 3,000 |
| Baltimore furniture dealers | 30,000 |
| Making a grand total of | $227,150 |

His assets are:

| Horses, carriages, etc | 30,000 |
| House and lot in Sumter | 4,000 |
| Plantation in Sumter | 3,000 |
| | $67,000 |

Senator Morton publishes in the Indianapolis Journal, under date of May 9th, a long letter, in the course of which he takes the position that the vetoed currency bill was not in antagonism to specie resumption. The Senator from Indiana evidently has not been converted by the veto message. He still advocates the bill that met its death in the presidential office.

MRS. ANDERSON'S HUSBANDS

ONE MAN COMPELLED TO SUPPORT ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE

JUDGE DANIELS DECIDING THAT MARRIAGE DOES NOT DEPRIVE THE WIFE OF HER ALIMONY AFTER IT HAS BEEN ORDERED BY A COURT.

The case of Mrs. Jeannette G. Anderson, who while living with her third husband, Gen. C. L. Anderson, is receiving $3,672 50 from two previous husbands, is believed to be without precedent in this State. Mrs. Anderson's first husband was Joseph Giraud, from whom she obtained a divorce, thus becoming entitled to one-half the income of a trust fund, amounting to $20,350, her income from that source having been for three years past $672 50 annually. She next married Thomas G. Shepherd, and after living with him for several years sued in the Supreme Court for divorce on the ground of Shepherd's improper conduct. Judge Barnard granted the decree September 5, 1871, and adjudged that it should be lawful for Jeannette to marry again, as though defendant were dead, but that Shepherd should not marry again during her life time. He also ordered Shepherd to pay his divorced wife $3,000 annually in quarterly installments. A few months after this decree Mrs. Shepherd married General C. L. Anderson, Internal Revenue Collector at Columbia, South Carolina. General Anderson has a salary of $2,500 a year, without perquisites, which, joined to Jeannette's alimony of $3,672 50 from Giraud and Shepherd, made a very comfortable income. After paying three or four installments Shepherd tired of and began a proceeding to have the alimony part of the decree stricken out on the ground that Mr. Anderson was able to and should take care of Mrs. Anderson. Jeannette resisted the motion, and made an affidavit that her present husband was a soldier of the volunteer service during the war of the rebellion, and after its close embarked in an effort to utilize the freed labor of the South in plantation speculation and lost thereby all his savings, and she married him with a full knowledge of his pecuniary position, and relying upon her own income to secure to her the comforts to which she had been accustomed; that her present income was absolutely necessary for her support and maintenance, especially in view of her failing health, and that her late husband's application had been made for the purpose of annoying her.

SUPPORTING GEN. ANDERSON'S WIFE,

At the hearing before the referee, the Hon. Wm. H. Leonard, Mr. Shepherd swore that he had been aware of Jeannette's income from Mr. Giraud's estate, and that she had [redacted] support his divorced wife ceased, the alimony should cease. It was for her to decide whether she would lay this $3,000 on the altar of her third love. Counsel was informed that she was not so deeply in love with Gen. Anderson as not to take advice about the effect of a new husband on the alimony question. Gen. Sandford argued that Mrs. Anderson had violated no matrimonial duty, and therefore owed no allegiance to her former husband, and that her right to alimony was perfect and absolute.

Judge Daniels rendered his decision yesterday. He said:

The continuance of the allowance is in no way rendered dependent on the fact that she shall or shall not marry again. The control of the Court is in no way dependent on the subsequent marriage. * * * * * * * The reasoning of the rule applied in the Forrest case, that he was not allowed to prove the subsequent misconduct of the wife for the purpose of depriving her of alimony, would seem to maintain the conclusion that an act approved by both law and morals should not be attended with a loss which was then denied to be a proper or lawful consequence of subsequent misbehavior.

The case is to be taken to the Court of Appeals.—New York Sun.

CURRENT TOPICS AT THE CAPITAL.

A Complaint from Colored Citizens of Georgia.

Correspondence of the New York Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, Friday, May 8, 1874.

The colored people of Georgia are complaining to Congress that they are unfairly treated by the Democratic administration of their State in the distribution of arms to the State militia. In a memorial adopted by the colored Military Convention, held in Savannah last February, and just presented to Congress, these people say that although they have formed military companies in accordance with the laws of the State, and the State has received from the United States since the close of the war 1,180 breech-loading rifles, 870 muzzle-loading rifles, 520 pistols, 500 cavalry sabres, 5 light 12-pound bronze guns, and fifty non-commissioned officers' swords, all of these arms but 150 breech-loading rifles have been distributed to white companies. The memorialists say that they are alarmed at this and other circumstances, which convince them that the Democratic rulers of Georgia intend, so far as possible, to keep the colored people of the State in ignorance by neglecting to establish schools for their education, and prevent them from organizing military companies, so that they will be weak while cunningly devised plans are matured to control absolutely their labor. Among other things of which they complain is the organization of a secret society of planters known as "Patrons of Husbandry," which they fear intends to control the labor on the plantations of the members, to the injury of the colored men. They therefore ask Congress to provide "for organizing, arming, and disciplining the militia of Georgia, so that military companies composed of friends of the Union may enjoy the same privileges that its late opponents enjoy," and that in the organization and equipment of military companies no discrimination shall be made between said companies on account of race, color, or former condition of servitude.

A SUICIDE.

Boston, May 11.—Clark Wilson, a resident of Peabody, cut his throat to-day. His brother Silas hanged himself three weeks ago.

A TERRIBLE OUTRAGE.

THREE THOUSAND MEN FORCE A JAIL.

SWIFT AND TERRIBLE RETRIBUTION.

THE FIEND HUNG.

[Special Telegram to the Constitution.]

MOBILE, ALA., May 11, 1874.

Between 2 and 3 P. M. yesterday, Frank A. Williams, a white man of very dangerous character, who has been engaged in numerous and repeated offenses against the law, met a four year old daughter of one of our citizens while she was playing upon he streets. Taking her to a house near by he outraged her in the most deliberate, cruel and hellish manner, using a knife to aid him in the perpetration of his horrible crime.

The cries of the child speedily brought her assistance, and her father, rushing into the house, discovered the brutal villain in the act.

Williams escaped through a back way, but about 6 P. M., was found, arrested and carried to the guard house.

Steps were immediately taken to lynch him, but before the crowd assembled, Williams was hurried to the county jail for protection.

The news rapidly spreading, this morning some three thousand men assembled and broke into the jail, and seizing him, hung the fiend to a tree near by till dead.

The child at 12 M. to-day was lying in a critical and precarious state and, it is feared, will die.

The wretch, insensible to fear, died coolly, assisting in his execution, and stated that he knew nothing of the deed. He was crazy with drink at the time. The sheriff, jailor, and several assistants, in attempting to protect the prisoner were seized and detained, but no injury was done them.

THE OOSTANAULA.

A BILL FOR ITS IMPROVEMENT PASSES THE HOUSE.

$50,000 FOR SAVANNAH.

[Special Telegram to the Constitution.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 11, 1874.

The Committee on Commerce having refused to include an appropriation of $10,000 for the improvement of the Oostanaula river in the river and harbor bill, Gen. Young called up his bill this morning and secured its passage under suspension of the rules. The only appropriation for Georgia in the river and harbor bill which passed the House to-day, is $50,000 for the Savannah harbor.

The Secretary of War is authorized to order the survey of Oconee river; from Ocmulgee to Milledgeville; of Whitachoo river from the mouth of Acopilico river, and of Altamaha river below Atlanta.

HEAVY FIRE.

Toronto, May 11.—Losses by fire here on Saturday night will reach $250,000.

FOUR MEN LOST.

Providence, May 11.—The schooner Thomas Hunt, from Shetland, reports the loss of four men.

LOCAL OPTION.

Harrisburg, May 11.—The local option repeal bill was defeated in the House on the third reading this morning.

MARINE.

Charleston, May 11.—Arrived—Salween, Merman, the war brig Rover, Havana, Maria Wheeler, H. H. Jones.

Sailed—H. M. Buell.

TOOMBS VISITS THE PRESIDENT.

Washington, May 11.—General Toombs called upon the President. The interview, in the main, was social and very satisfactory to both parties.

MINERS' RIOT.

Cincinnati, May 11.—Affairs at Nelsonville, Ohio, are quiet since the arrest of the rioting miners on Saturday. The miners are not working, however; none daring to attempt it.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.

Washington, May 11.—The caucus of Republican Senators, this morning, agreed on the order of business in the Senate, as follows:

The Geneva award bill is first to be disposed of, the currency bill will then be taken up, and subsequently the appropriation bills in the order of their presentation to the Senate.

MEMORIAL DAY IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Wilmington, May 11.—The Confederate memorial services to-day were of the most imposing character. Business was entirely suspended, and a large number of buildings appropriately draped. The procession was unusually long, and the crowd at the cemetery estimated as larger than at any previous celebration. The address was delivered by Colonel A. A. McKay.

ANOTHER MINORITY REPORT ON THE SOUTH CAROLINA MEMORIAL.

Washington, May 11.—To-day, Mr. Potter, of the Judiciary Committee of the House, submitted the views of himself and Mr. Ward, of the committee on the memorial of the South Carolina tax-payers. Whatever may be the condition of public affairs in that State, the minority are not prepared to say the Government has authority to interfere with the State Government, where popular suffrage exists. The report refers to the deplorable rule in South Carolina as recited by the memorialists, none of the charges having been controverted, and claims that though existing under the form of law, it is none the less a government not worthy to be preserved. The Constitution provides for its own amendment; and if the present state of things in the South be owing to the late Constitutional amendment forbidding any restriction in suffrage on account of race or color, it may be found that some further amendments, looking to educational or other qualifications for Federal suffrage, are necessary. At any rate distress and abuses prevail to such an extent as to seem to warrant investigation. It is recommended by the minority, with a view of ascertaining whether there be any great and prevalent evil which can be cured by any Legislation now or that may hereafter be brought within the power of Congress.

"THE PEACE MAKER."

THE PRESIDENT DROPS A NOTE TO BROOKS AND BAXTER.

HE WANTS THE LEGISLATURE TO ADJOURN TEN DAYS.

BOTH GOVERNORS TO CONVENE LEGISLATURES.

BAXTER AGREES TO LET HIS BODY ADJOURN FROM DAY TO DAY.

THE PLAN PLEASES THE PRESIDENT.

NO REPLY FROM BROOKS AS YET.

A PROBABLE TRUCE ALONG THE ARKANSAS.

[By Telegraph to the Constitution.]

MUCH SHOOTING, BUT LITTLE BLOOD.

Little Rock, May 11.—The Brooksites hold the bridge at Baring Cross, one mile the other side of the river. There is much shooting, but no blood.

A REFUGEE.

Tankersly, Speaker of the House of Representatives, is refugeeing St. Louisward, from whence he will telegraph something to (Federal) Colonel Rose. Both parties dread each other, and the handful of Federal troops keep them at bay.

GRANT TO BAXTER.

WASHINGTON, May 11, 1874.

Hon. Elijah Baxter, Little Rock:

I recommend that the members of the General Assembly now at Little Rock adjourn for a reasonable time, say ten days, to enable Brooks to call to the body his supposed adherents so that there may be a full Legislature. Any hasty action by a part of the Assembly will not be satisfactory to the people. Brooks' friends here agree that if this course is pursued no opposition will be made to the meeting of the Assembly in the State House as usual, and that he will at once dismiss his forces if you will do the same. I urgently request that all armed forces on both sides be disbanded so that the General Assembly may act free from any military pressure or influence. The United States forces will give all necessary protection to the Legislature and prevent as far as practicable all violence and disturbance of the public peace. Answer.

[Signed] U. S. GRANT.

A NOTE TO THE OTHER PARTY.

WASHINGTON, May 11, 1874.

Hon. James Brooks, Little Rock:

I have suggested to Mr. Baxter that the members of the General Assembly now in Little Rock, adjourn for a reasonable time, say ten days, to give you an opportunity to call in those members who may not respond to his call, so that there may be a full Legislature. The United States will give all necessary protection to the Legislature in enacting and transacting its business as usual at the State House, and prevent, as far as practicable, all violence and disturbance of the public peace. I urgently request that the military of both parties be at once disbanded, which is the first toward a peaceable settlement.

[Signed.] U. S. GRANT.

WAITING FOR THE ANSWERS.

Washington, May 11.—Answers from Brooks and Baxter will come to the President and be sent by him to the Attorney General. There is little probability of getting the substance to-night as the Attorney General requires rest he says and will not be seen after 9 o'clock to-night. The Arkansas partizans are on close watch and may possibly have private advices before this dispatch closes.

BAXTER REPLIES TO GRANT.

Little Rock, May 11.—To U. S. Grant, President: There is almost a quorum of both houses of the Legislature present, and they have power under the constitution to adjourn from day to day until they have a quorum, and they can adjourn no longer until they have a quorum. I am in favor of their adjourning as long as they please until every supposed Brooks adherent is present with this understanding.

I WILL DISBAND

my troops in proportion as Brooks disbands his, but for the meeting of the Legislature at the usual place.

LOCATION OF THE CONTESTANTS.

Mr. Brooks must get as far from it west as I am east, and deposit the State arms in the State armory, and let the State House and public buildings be turned over at once to J. M. Johnson, Secretary of State, to whom, under the law, they belong.

[Signed.] ELISHA BAXTER, Governor of Arkansas.

THE LETTER AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

On the receipt of the above dispatch to the President and Attorney-General Williams, they held another consultation and decided to send the following telegrams, which were sent to-night:

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL CARRIES THE NEWS TO BROOKS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 11, 1874.

Hon. Joseph Brooks, Little Rock:

Hon. Elisha Baxter has telegraphed the President that the General Assembly must adjourn from day to day until a quorum is present, and that then he is in favor of its adjourning until every one of your supposed adherents is present, with the understanding that he will disband his troops in the proportion that you disband yours; that you will get away as far west as he is east of the State House, and allow it to be turned over to the Secretary of State, who is its legal custodian, and that you will deposit the State arms in the State armory. The members of the Legislature in Little Rock heartily approve of this proposition.

I am directed by the President to say that this is fair and reasonable, and your interests require its immediate acceptance. Answer.

[Signed.] GEO. H. WILLIAMS, Attorney General.

AND THEN TO ELISHA.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 11, 1874.

Hon. Elisha Baxter, Little Rock:

I am directed by the President to say that he considers your proposition fair and reasonable, and I have asked Mr. Brooks for its immediate acceptance by him.

[Signed.] GEO. H. WILLIAMS, Attorney General.

RETAINERS TO THE RESCUE.

The following was also received here this afternoon:

LITTLE ROCK, May 11, 1874.

To U. S. Grant, President:

We the undersigned, members of the General Assembly of Arkansas, present here to meet under the call of Governor Baxter have read his (Baxter's) response to your telegram to-day, and most heartily approve and endorse it.

(Signed) B. J. ASKEY, President of the Senate, and other Senators, A. BIEDLE, Speaker of the House and 36 other members present.

State Fair.—The citizens of Atlanta, with Mayor Spencer at their head, are making extensive preparations for the State Fair next October. They are determined to make it the most complete success that has ever been in the South, and are now putting in money and work, in all sorts of judicious ways, to secure this result. May their hopes be fully realized.—Rome Courier.

WASHINGTON.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR RIVER IMPROVEMENTS.

TINKERING THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

Washington, May 11.—House—The following bills were introduced and referred in the House:

By Mr. Harris, of Virginia—changing the revenue laws so that the change in a firm may not require new license.

By Mr. Sloan—To amend the act regarding the redemptions held by the United States under direct tax sales.

Coosawatchie river gets ten thousand upon motion of General Young.

Several speeches regarding the memorial of the South Carolina tax payers were ordered printed.

The House passed the river and harbor appropriation bill under the suspension of the rules. It contains the following: Improvement of the Mississippi, Missouri and Arkansas rivers, $100,000; the White river above Jacksonport, $50,000; the Mississippi river between the mouths of the Ohio and Missouri, $200,000; the mouth of the Mississippi river, $190,000; removing the raft in Red river (Louisiana), $50,000; Mobile harbor, $10,000; Savannah harbor (Georgia), $50,000; mouth of St. John's river (Florida), $10,000; Acquia river (Virginia), $5,000; mouth of Nomoni creek (Virginia), $6,000; Rappahanock (Virginia), $7,000; James and Appomatox, Virginia each, $30,000; Elizabeth and Nonsemond rivers each, $10,000; Roanoke, North Carolina, $6,000; Cape Fear, North Carolina, $100,000; Galveston Harbor, Texas, $60,000; Tennessee river above Chattanooga, $25,000; Tennessee river below Chattanooga, $100,000.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Nunn of Tennessee, and referred to the Judiciary Committee for the appointment of a Provisional Government of Arkansas.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Fort, of Illinois, and adopted under a suspension of the rules, that if an increase of taxation be necessary, it shall commence with the taxation of individuals and corporations on their incomes.

Senate.—Senator Scott, of Pennsylvania, from Committee on Claims, reported adversely on the House resolution directing the Southern Claims Commission to send to Congress, without delay, all claims decided prior to April 1st, 1874, placed on the calendar with adverse report.

Senator Spencer, of Alabama, introduced a bill for the relief of settlers on public lands in Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi and Florida. It provides that persons in those States who have made bona fide homestead entries and who have been unable to keep up their occupancy of the same shall be allowed to purchase them at the minimum price fixed by law for the sale of public lands in other States.

Senator Morrill, of Vermont, introduced a resolution directing the committee on Public Buildings and Grounds, to ascertain if the material in the present unfinished Washington monument, would be sufficient for the erection of an arch to be called the Washington Arch, and if the Washington Monument Society should consent to such arrangement.

Senator Morrill said that this monument, in its present condition, had long been a reproach to the country. Numerous projects towards its completion had been made, but all involved a large expenditure of money. He thought an arch might be erected of material which would be a credit to the city, and in which many beautiful blocks, already contributed, could be displayed to advantage. The resolution was agreed to.

The Geneva award bill was discussed until the hour of adjournment. It was then agreed that the vote on it should be taken at 3 o'clock to-morrow.

A BRUTAL RAPE.

AN INDIGNANT COMMUNITY HANG THE FIEND.

Mobile, May 11.—A fiend in human shape committed a rape on a little white child four years old, yesterday. To-day, about eleven o'clock, an outraged community marched en masse to the county jail where the fiend had been carried, and after battering down the wall took the fiend to the nearest tree and hanged him. The name of the fiend is Frank Williams.

Mobile, May 11.—The body of Frank Williams remained suspended for over two hours before it was cut down and turned over to the Coroner, who summonded a jury to view the body, and then ordered the jury to assemble at his office at ten o'clock to-morrow morning. The Coroner then ordered the City Sexton to take charge of the body and bury it, which was done.

The injured child is very low and terribly mutilated. She is not expected to live.

Frank D. Scoville, of Rockport, Niagara county, New York, traveling agent of John Wyatt & Brother, Manufacturing Chemists, of Philadelphia, died here yesterday.

A CINCINNATI RIOT.

Cincinnati, May 10.—A riot between striking union miners and those willing to work resulted in the death of three at Nelsonville, Athens county. A train was sent to quell the riot, and the ringleaders have been arrested.

WEATHER.

PROBABILITIES.

Washington, May 11.—For the South Atlantic and Gulf States increasing cloudiness with northeast to southeast winds and threatening weather on the Atlantic coast, and southerly winds with continued warm weather in the interior.

CONDITION OF THE RIVERS.

Washington, May 11.—The signal office reports that during the past twenty-four hours the Mississippi has fallen at St. Paul and LaCrosse, risen one inch at Davenport and Keokuk and fallen from St. Louis to Vicksburg, except at Helena, where a rise of three inches is reported, and remained stationary at New Orleans. The Missouri has risen slightly at Yonkton, fallen from Omaha to Plattsmouth, risen from St. Joseph to Kansas City and fallen thence to Jefferson City. A slight rise is reported at Hemann. The Ohio continues to fall steady from Pittsburg to its mouth. The Red River has fallen six inches at Shreveport, the Cumberland three feet at Washvilte, and the Alleghany and Monaghala have fallen slightly during the same period. Rain has fallen in the water sheds of the Mississippi at Davenport 18-100 of an inch at St. Louis, 8-100 at LaCrosse, 4-100 and at Keokuk 2-100, and in that of the Missouri 1-100 of an inch at Leavenworth, and the same amount at Omaha. No rain fall is reported within the water sheds of the other rivers.

The White Sulphur as a Marriage Mart.

To show what the White Sulphur Springs of Virginia did during the last season in the way of bringing together souls with single thoughts and hearts that beat as one, we copy the following interesting items from the local column of the Raleigh (N. C.) Crescent:

What the White Sulphur in Virginia has done for old North Carolina, let us just cite a few of the many matches made there by citizens from this State: Colonel John L. Morehead, of Charlotte, met his accomplished lady there; Murray F. Smith, of Greensboro', met his there; Lewis Barringer, then of this city, captured his fair bride there; Colonel John Staples, of Greensboro', met with his wife there; and Eugene Morehead, Esq., of Greensboro', met his excellent lady there. The Presbyterian "Old Folks' Concert"

At the meeting yesterday afternoon, the ladies of the Central Presbyterian Church determined to postpone indefinitely the proposed second "Old Folks Concert." They disliked to deny the urgent requests made upon them for a second Concert, but having successfully inaugurated in Atlanta this entertainment, they concluded to give way for the benefit of sister churches intending to give concerts, especially as members of those churches had kindly assisted in the Presbyterin concert at "ye Irishman's Ball." One of their Methodist friends present at the meeting was assured of hearty wishes for the success of their approaching "Old Folks' Concert."

The Central ladies cleared some five or six hundred dollars from Festival and Concert.

YOUNG MENS LIBRARY.

A visitor comes to Atlanta immediately notices our beautiful temples of trade, tasty, and neat houses of worship, successfully managed lines of street railways, hears the busy hum of industry, sees enterprise and activity, finds elegant residences, beautiful in design, and harmonious in proportion and then exclaims at each visit I make to your city I can perceive its growth, prosperity and advancement. Now there is a corresponding improvement going on in the social condition of Atlanta which is not observable at first to the visitors, one which causes the reporter's heart to throb with pride and gratulations. There are various associations and societies, which have for their objects the strengthening of the social band in our city, the improvement of our people; that are calculated to direct their powers, to awaken in them a higher public principle, a nobler and truer patriotism and a better and more consistent appreciation of their public duties and obligations. These associations have all had their influence in the improvement of Atlanta for it is undoubtedly true that where the minds of men are enlightened, when their understanding are enlarged and their tastes elevated, then their moral sense will be raised and improved, for the effect follows the cause. As knowledge is diffused over a city morals are secured, and liberty and property protected. Men who read, who think and who reason, understand their duties and the true interests of a community.

"You will confer the greatest benefit upon your city," said Epictetus, "not by raising its roofs, but by exalting the souls of your fellow-citizens." The Young Men's Library will stand a monument to its founders of their great regard for the intellectual welfare of the young men of the city.

This Association was organized August, 1867. The first President was Captain Henry Jackson; the second President was Colonel E. Y. Clarke. At its organization there were some two hundred volumes. Mr. John H. Flynn is the President at this time. Mr. Charlie Herbst became Librarian in the winter of 1868, and with the exception of the time the office was filled by Mr. John W. Pierce, and Mr. Isaac Boring, this accomplished and efficient gentleman has most satisfactorily discharged the duties of the office. Mr. Herbst is assisted by young Mr. Eddy Grant, whose courteous bearing and smile of welcome is well known to the visitors to the Library.

At this time there are over six hundred members. The number of books in the Library are four thousand and forty. About twelve thousand volumes are circulated during the year. Some sixty newspapers and magazines are taken by the Library. The newspapers are from the prominent points in the country, while the magazines are selected from the best that are issued. In the rooms are portraits, engravings, rare coin, curious shells, sparkling minerals, relics of the late war, delicate flowers, and various other things calculated to refine, amuse, interest and instruct. At intervals lectures for the benefit of the Library are given by distinguished gentlemen.

On the shelves, the visitor will find books from which he can inform himself of the achievements of science. Romantic young gentlemen, with open collars, will find Byron. Stage struck heroes can lay their hands on Shakspeare Love cracked youths can peruse the pages of Moore. The thoughtful can delight in the serious poetry of Cowper. Here, in imagination, the reader can dwell with Socrates on the delights of philosophy; just with Anacreon on his devotion to the purple cup and ruby wine; and with the Bard of Paradise soar upward to the celestial regions. Here the embryo statesmen may grow enthusiastic amid the flashing scintillations from the minds of Jefferson, Hamilton, Clay, Calhoun and Webster. Here can be found books that will fill the soul with ennobling thoughts, give the reader a just conception of the wisdom and benevolence of the creator, of the powers, the duties and the destinies of man. Here are books of history, literature, poetry, the elegant arts; in fact on subjects so

"Various, that the desultory mind of man
Studious of change, and fond of novelty
May find delight."

The Library is a fountain of practical information, of rational amusement, and intellectual gratification. It is a boon to all classes of society, and they find in it both recreation and enjoyment. In these rooms the mind will not shape itself in iniquity, or speed its energies on gross or sensual objects, but will be fitted to adorn the temple of justice, or to shine in the halls of legislation. Here, knowledge, virtue, wisdom and happiness will be gained. Here, impressions will be made favorable to integrity, social order, and friendly intercourse.

Young man, in your pleasures, or in your business, call to minds the words of Cicero. "Who has a right to blame me," said he, "if that time which other men are wont to bestow upon festivals and shows, upon grosser and meaner pleasures, or even upon the rest and relaxation of body and mind; if as much time as they give to convivial feasts, to their sports, or to the gaming table, so much have I given to letters and philosophy." Remember that this model of brilliant and successful literary application, though neglecting no duty, or evading no work, gladly fled from the applause of the forum to the silence of his library, and the rich fruit of many a midnight study, was eloquence, an eloquence by which he became the savior of his country. The annual meeting takes place to night, when the reports of the officers will be read.

Sunday Services at the Second Baptist Church.

Nothwithstanding the absence in Texas of Dr. Spalding, the services at the Second Church on last Sabbath, both morning and night were of a peculiarly solemn character. In the morning the Rev. H. H. Tucker, D. D., delivered what is considered by many one of the ablest discourses of his ministerial life.

Dr. Tucker's subject was that profound and mysterious doctrine taught in James 2 chap., 10th verse. "Whosoever keep the whole law and offend in one point is guilty of all."

We should be glad to give a synopsis of the various theories advanced by this eminent divine both in the support and in mitigation of this most startling assertion of the apostle James. His comparisons between divine and human law were evidently the result of deep thought and research, and the entire sermon was clothed with such beautiful diction and and the lessons taught were so forcible and pointed, that the large and critical congregation sat deeply interested during its entire delivery.

While the text would seem to throw a terror around the Gospel of Christ, Dr. Tucker's explanations of its apparently harsh features gave new encouragement to the professors of religion, while the unconverted present, who may have expected but a searching and terrible rebuke, found that they were simply listening to a masterly exposition of God's law, and had the religion of Christ held up to them in new and attractive lights.

AT NIGHT

Rev. A. J. Jaeger, the recently converted Jewish Rabbi, preached to a very large congregation. The novelty of this representative of an ancient race of unbelievers, preaching the Gospel of the humble Galilean caused him to be listened to with the greatest interest. Mr. Jaeger is a man of fine learning, and carries on his face that tender and poetic expression which mark many faces of the Hebrew race. He is now both a student of Baptist theology and an instructor at Greenville Seminary in that peerless language in which David gave us the Psalms, and whose beauties and antiquity will be admired as long as one of the "scattered nation" shall exist.

CREMATION.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

Heathenism Redivivus.

LOUISVILLE, KY., April 25, 1874.

Editors Constitution: There needs no better evidence of the prevalent infidelity and Heathenism of the times we live in than in the attempt to revive the strictly heathen practice of cremation. We call it a heathen practice for it has only obtained in heathen countries and times, and never found any favor in Christian lands and among Christain people. What is the history of this practice? Briefly this the first notice of the burning of the dead in History was that by the Thebans of the bodies of Mecenas and Achimorus, which was about the time of Iair the 8th Judge of Israel. Homer abounds with funeral obsequies of this character. From the Greeks the custom passed to the Romans, but was not observed by them until near the end of the Republic Marius having been the first Roman that was burned, and that was done, it is stated, that his body might be preserved from indignity at the hands of his enemies. After that the practice became common among the Romans, but was entirely abandoned at the end of the Fourthenth Century. It was at that time that the ancient paganism received its death blow at the hands of St. Augustine in his 'City of God." Christianity branded cremation as essentially a Pagan custom, and it has never been countenanced until the illuminati of this Nineteenth Century again attempted to introduce it. One would think that the Inspector of Burials in England and Wales during the past twenty years is qualified to speak decisively concerning the advantages of burial over cremation, or the contrary. Now he has spoken in most positive terms. We have before us his letter to Sir Henry Thompson, who wrote a paper advocating cremation.

It seems to me that Mr. Holland's (the inspector mentioned) arguments against the new practice are simply conclusive. He shows that the theory on which the main conclusion of the cremationists is based is entirely without reasonable foundation. He shows that there is no real difference between rapid decomposition by fire, and slow decay in the grave—that the ultimate results are the same in both cases and that the resolution of our bodies into their constituent elements cannot be retarded, and need not be avoided. He shows that graveyards, properly attended to, are perfectly harmless in any situation, and that the objection to them, founded on the theory that they occupy ground that might be utilized for cultivation, is perfectly futile and ridiculous. "To give up burial because of the very slight amount of its inevitable danger would be as wise, or rather as foolish, as to give up the safest known mode of traveling, because one railroad passenger in some eight or ten millions gets killed. The fact is that it is not so much the burial as the unburial of the dead that is dangerous "In proportion." he says, "as we secure these conditions is our safety; for then we shall have as perfect a combustion of putrescent matter as if it were burnt with fire, the ashes left in the soil will be as inoffensive as are those of the funeral pyre, while it will be far more easy to insure the process being completed without offence than it could be done with fire. Besides, the latter process would necessarily require the active superintendence of a class of men whose services for such an office it would be scarcely possible always to obtain, while it is evident that imperfectly conducted burning of the dead would be inexpressibly shocking and apt not rarely to occur." The idea of poisonous cases is completely refuted, as is the notion of the water becoming impregnated with putrescent matter. "It is indeed," says the Inspector, "straining at a gnat and swallowing a camel to object to a burial ground half a mile from a well while tolerating a cess-pool within a few yards, but I have known it done.

I have also known a church-yard suspected as the cause of polluting wells when those nearest it were not polluted, while others more distant were, the latter being nearer the drain from which the pollution really proceeded, as the presence of excess of chlorides in the water clearly showed." The English custom of keeping the corpse some days prevents all danger of burying alive, and in any case it would be as unpleasant to be burned alive as to be burned in that condition.

The supposed cases of those buried having struggled in their coffins on reviving from a trance are far more likely to have been accidental disturbances of the body in moving it, and in any event no person could ever become conscious after burial. "Why," says Mr. Holland, "why not, as we easily might, dry and reduce to powder the flesh as well as the bones of our relatives and friends, to be used as a substitute for guano, thereby saving the whole amount of £700,000 a year?" Such a proposal is about as likely to be adopted as would be that of resorting to cannibalism to reduce the cost of butcher's meat. This would do the dead no harm and do no mischief to the living, except by converting us into a nation of savage barbarians, or rather we should have to become such before we could even consider the possibility of adopting any of these economics. Sir Henry must be poking fun at us, he cannot be serious, but the joke is rather grim.

In conclusion Mr. Holland ends his refutation of the cremation project thus:

"There is, therefore, no present need or future probability for even considering the discontinuance of the most ancient and most generally adopted mode of disposing of our dead, far less for adopting a plan involving a change in the form of our sublime and tender burial service. If we have to commit the body of our dearly beloved brother' not to the earth, but the flames, of course an alteration would be needed, but I submit that the new form would sometimes be so unpleasantly suggestive as to be alone sufficient to insure the prompt rejection of the entire proposal."

"Unpleasantly suggestive," I suppose, of "the fire that shall never be quenched," which I fear many or these Cremation Apostles will become acquainted with if they do not amend their ways and their thoughts.

Mr. Holland's paper deserves to be printed entire in every journal in the land. It does not leave any ground for the cremation theory to stand upon, and surely if any authority in the matter should be respected, it should be that of the gentleman who has been devoting his whole time to burials in England and Wales during twenty years past.

If we make progress, let it be forwards and not backwards. We want no heathen ceremonies, rites or customs in this Christian land. "The rich man died and was buried, and in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments." How strange it would read, "The rich man died and was burned, and in hell," etc. One burning was surely enough, unless the cremationists wish the former to be indicated by the latter.

Faithfully yours, etc, A. F. T.

THE CADETS.

Annual Election of Officers.

While writing last night in the lofty top of THE CONSTITUTION building, burst after burst of applause was wafted at intervals into the windows and through our ears. We looked out and down upon the brilliantly lighted city, and could see the Beethoven Club in James' Hall, but we had to go further for the origin of the enthusiastic notes. Looking beyond, we saw that the armory of the Cadets was brilliantly illuminated, and knew that these joyous Katy-Dids, or Ladies' Pets, were the jolly boys kicking up all the racket.

It was the occasion of their annual election for officers. All the commissioned officers were re-elected, there being some changes among the non-commissioned. The meeting was very fully attended and enthusiastic, as we have already testified.

Below is the list of officers elected. All made speeches of thanks, except Lieutenants Henderson and Bridges, who were absent:

Captain, J A Fitten. 1st Lieutenant, C W Henderson; 2d Lieutenant, J B Bridges. 1st Sergeant, E S McCandless; 2d Sergeant, S N Dykeman; 3d Sergeant, J A Powell, Jr; 4th Sergeant, J H Burke. Quartermaster Sergeant, F J Magill. Ensign, T A Johnson. 1st Corporal, F J Hoyle; 2d Corporal, W B Joyner; 3d Corporal, O J Smith; 4th Corporal, W H Lester. Secretary, O J Smith. Treasurer, W J Warlick.

The company now numbers 75 men. Long live the Cadets.

THANKS.—The warm thanks of the junior editor of this column are returned to the senior class of College Temple for the beautiful cake sent to him from their recent festival. He will long remember their kindness, and regrets his inability to thank them personally and more appropriately. The young ladies must take the will for the deed, and this method of expression for the much warmer one he would certainly adopt were he in Newnan. May they all live to grace many more such festivals.

THE POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

The Board Render a Decision in the Davis' Row Battle—Policemen Rapp and Poe's Tried and Acquitted—Two Detectives Elected.

The Commissioners, like all large bodies, moved slowly last night. At half past seven Commissioner Smith was at the place of meeting. Commissioner Dodd soon after came up, and about eight o'clock Commissioners Morris, Goldsmith and Mahoney came up.

DECISION OF THE BOARD.

The Board then delivered its decision in the investigation of the battle of Davis' Row.

After thorough investigation of the difficulty between a number of the police force of Atlanta and a number of the United States soldiers, at or near Davis' Row on Racetrack street, on the morning of May the first, 1874, we find the testimony so contradictory and conflicting as to preclude any opinion, approaching to certainty, as to which party should receive the absolute censure of the board. The testimony shows that some half hour or so before the difficulty occurred a door had been reported broken down in what is known as by one or more United States soldiers, and the fact made known to the policemen on duty near the locality. The testimony also shows that these policemen conveyed word to Lieutenant Murphy, acting Chief of Police, of this disturbance and his aid asked in order to effect the arrest of the disturbing parties. Lieutenant White and a squad of policemen was ordered to hasten to the locality and restore order, and if necessary arrest the offenders. In carrying out this order, Lieutenant White placed himself and squad between the Barracks and Davis' Row, approaching the latter place by Racetrack street. Other policemen were, at the same time, approaching Davis' Row from Peters' street. Lieutenant White ordered his men to use their clubs and

NOT TO FIRE.

We believe from the testimony that the firing, by whichever party commenced, occurred in the alley between the houses of Davis' Row, and not on Racetrack street, and while exonerating Lieutenant White and the force under his immediate command from commencing the firing, we believe he should have used more discretion. He should have ascertained whether or not the five or six United States soldiers sitting on the bridge, who, from the testimony, were orderly, were parties to the disturbance before ordering his force to "catch them." Whether the police force approaching Davis' Row, from Peters street, or the we cannot determine with certainty, the testimony being conflicting. We believe, however, that the weight of testimony goes to show that the soldiers who were being pursued by Lieutenant White's force, and who turned up the alley between the houses of the Row, saw the policemen approaching from Peters street, and fired upon them, which fire was returned and a United States soldier wounded.

We regret the conflict between the police and soldiers, and desire to impress upon the Chief of Police, officers and men of the force, the utmost prudence in the use of fire-arms, and in the arrest of offenders. They must with the lessons furnished them by this difficulty see the importance of caution and prudence; and we recognize from it our duty to issue strict regulations in the use of fire arms by the force, which are furnished them for self-protection, and not for aggressive purposes.

As the cause of the late difficulty, we believe, originated in a locality of bad repute, and as similar occurrences in the future are likely to arise, if this immoral nuisance is not abated, we hope, by legal interference, to remove this source of trouble, and to thus greatly obviate the danger of conflicts between the police and United States soldiers.

The Board desire to express their appreciation of the honorable action of Col. Brown, Commandant of the Post, and his officers, in aiding us in making a thorough investigation of the difficulty, and trust in the future, by a better understanding, there shall arise no similar conflicts between the United States soldiers and the Police Force of our city. We shall certainly do all in our power, by strict discipline and stringent orders, which will, we trust, insure future peace and good order to our city.

G. T. DODD,
W. T. GOLDSMITH,
JOHN F. MORRIS,
M. MAHONEY,
Z. H. SMITH,
Commissioners of Police.

TRIAL OF POLICEMEN POOLE AND RAPP.

Policemen George Poole was charged with neglecting to arrest George Fletcher for being drunk and disorderly, and also asking for the loan of your pistol to kill a citizen. Said Charles Fletcher was not arrested until a subsequent demand for his arrest was made by a negro for cursing him, thereby allowing him time to have executed his first threat before arrest was made.

Policeman Rapp was charged with neglecting to arrest Fletcher, who was drunk and disorderly, after hearing him threaten to kill a citizen, and using profane language.

The following is the evidence:

L. S. Gammon—Saw Policeman Poole on the 11th of April at Fritz Hollinger's bar-room at junction of Walker and Peters' streets. Poole and Fletcher met. A Yankee soldier came by. Fletcher talked insulting to the soldier. Poole and Fletcher walked around Trottie's store and talked. Never heard Fletcher ask for Poole's pistol. Fletcher drew out his handkerchief, with a rock in one end, to hit Harris. Policeman Rapp interfered, and soon after policemen Rapp and Poole carried Fletcher to the Station House. Fletcher said that the soldier knocked him down, and asked Henry Harris if it was not so. Harris denied it. Fletcher told him he was a liar. Fletcher came from direction of Kile's bar room. Poole was there a short time before Rapp came down; understood that Henry Harris made a demand for Fletcher's arrest; could not hear all said between Fletcher and Poole: couldn't say whether Fletcher was under arrest at first or not; did not hear Harris demand Fletcher's arrest; only inferred it; heard Harris and Moore talk in a low tone; think Henry Harris demanded Fletcher's arrest—said "that he wanted him looked up" Witness has an application pending for an appointment on the police force. Saw nothing more of an arrest at the bar-room than previous, except they started off immediately for the Station House. One or the other was with him. Fletcher was under the shed about ten minutes.

Bud Bacchas—Saw Policemen Rapp and Poole talking with Fletcher. First in front of Trotti's, Poole was talking with Fletcher, Rapp in Trotti's door.

Knew of fight between Fletcher and soldier at Kiles Fletcher followed soldier to Fritz's. It was raining right sharply. The police and Fletcher stood under the shelter. Was not under the shed. Did not hear Fletcher swear or ask for a pistol.

Vance Bacchus—Fletcher was drunk in front of Bettis' store. Rapp and Poole met him at Trotti's store. Fletcher asked them to arrest a soldier and they went to Fritz Hollinger's store. The soldier was gone. Fletcher asked Harris if the soldier didn't knock him down. Harris said no. Fletcher cursed him and pulled out a handkerchief with a rock in it and threatened to strike Harris. Rapp interfered and soon after arrested him. Fletcher said if Poole would let him have his pistol he would go and shoot the soldier. Rapp remonstrated with him about talking so. Rapp and Poole were with Fletcher all the time. As soon as the rain ceased, they started for the Station House.

Gus Moore—Fletcher went into Hollinger's bar and started to hit with a rock the soldier who was asleep, but was prevented by Hollinger; don't think Fletcher was arrested until after Harris demanded it; been in chain gang for larceny.

Henry Harris, colored—Fletcher called me a liar and threatened to strike me with a rock; Rapp told him he couldn't do it; asked them to arrest him; they told him to come and go with them; the policemen met up with Fletcher at Trotti's store; they came up with him to Hollinger's; Moore advised me to have him arrested; Poole was on one side and Rapp on the other all the time, never heard them tell him to go home.

Fritz Hollinger—Rapp and Poole with Fletcher stopped under the shed out of the rain. (corroborates about Fletcher abusing Harris.) Harris demanded that they should make charges against Fletcher. All staid together there during the rain. The policemen said they wanted the soldier: to investigate the case.

F J Bomar—Knows the character of Gus Moore, wouldnt belive him on oath.

Pat Owens—Would'nt believe Gus Moore on oath.

Charles Fletcher—Met Poole at Trottie's store Asked me what was the matter. Told him and he told me he would have to make a case against me. We went to Hollinger's after the soldier. Told him I wanted the soldier arrested. I asked him for a pistol before we got to Hollinger's. Considered myself under arrest at Trottie's store. Thought he was under arrest.

Mr. Bay—Heard Poole say to Fletcher he might consider himself under arrest at Trottie's store. Thought he was under arrest.

J. P. Trottie—Poole came in my store. Fletcher came along, and asked Poole for his pistol. Soldier came by and Fletcher wanted to fight him. Poole took Fletcher one side. Rapp came up. Trottie said he ought to be arrested. Rapp said Poole had him in charge.

J. E. Rapp—Didn't see the arrest at Trottie's. Was at Bettis's, watching a soldier. Followed on behind the soldier. Saw Poole and Fletcher at Trottie's. Came up when Poole said he had to make a case against Fletcher. Went to Hollinger's. The soldier was not there. The rain compelled us to go under the shelter. Moore said to Poole, "I can tell you about the case," and they went off around the house. They came back. Fletcher was telling about being knocked down, when Harris said that he was not knocked down. Fletcher called him a liar. Told him that he was laying himself liable.

Policeman Poole gave in substance about the same statement. Never told Fletcher to go home and go to bed. Harris wanted Fletcher locked up for cursing him.

Messrs. J. B. Goodwin and J. A. Anderson represented the defendants; Capt. W. T. Newman for the Board.

The case was dismissed, the charges not being sustained.

Georgia State Dental Society.

The Georgia State Dental Society convened here yesterday in the Ball Room of the Kimball House, in its sixth annual session.

There were present: A C Ford, President; G W McElhaney, second Vice-President; L D Carpenter, Recording Secretary; H A Lowrance, Treasurer.

The following members of the Executive Committee, who are ex officio the State Dental Board, were present: Dr E Parsons, Savannah; E M Allen, Marietta; Dr W F Tigner, Columbus; H A Lowrance, Athens.

The following members were in attendance: Dr S. Hape, S G Holland, J B Murphy, J L Fogg, W T Pool, W H Burr, M H Thomas, R W Thornton.

Dr J H Coyle, of Thomasville, and J A Fuqua were elected members, and J A Chappel, of Athens, Frank Holland, of Atlanta, and G D Adair, of Sulphur Springs, placed on the probationary list.

The time of meeting being Wednesday in the minutes and Monday in the constitution, the minutes were corrected accordingly.

Dr. Ford, the President, then addressed the Society in his terse style. He welcomed the members of the Society to Atlanta, and urged the great importance of dental knowledge. He recommended the formation of auxiliary dental Societies, and the fostering of cordiality and social feeling in the profession.

Dr Parsons, Chairman of the Executive Committee, stated that the Committee felt like they were filling two offices—that of officers of the Society and officers of the State.

He had, in conformity with the act passed by the Legislature, advertised the meeting of the board 30 days before its convening. He, however, published the notice only in the Savannah News.

President Ford thought that the notice should have been published in the papers of all the cities in the State.

Dr. Hape said he had been frequently asked when the State Board met.

Dr. McElhany thought as the society had a list of all the Dentists in the State a notice be printed on and sent out on postal cards.

Dr. Pool thought that publishing the notice in the papers at Atlanta and Savannah would give it general circulation all over the State.

Dr. Hape said no form for a license had been adopted, and unless the society acted on it, the law would be a nullity.

The subject was referred to the Executive Committee to report Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. Lowrence thought it the duty of every member to report to the Executive Committee the names of all persons practising dentistry without a license so that they could be notified. The Society adjourned until 3 P. M.

The Society reassembled at 3 P. M. The report of the Committee on Dental Pathology and Surgery was called for. Dr. M. H. Thomas regretted that he had not prepared a written report. He thought the decay of the teeth was due to the abuse of the system. There was a sympathy existing between the teeth and other parts of the system. An abnormal state of the mouth was due to the general condition of the stomach.

Dr. Tigner asked if it was true that teeth decayed more now than formerly. Life insurance statistics shows that longevity is on the increase.

Dr. Parsons read a paper on Dental Surgery, based on the experience of forty years. He uses carbolic acid in abcesses with success.

Dr. Thomas supplemented the report with cases from his practice. He uses tincture of iodyne with success. The decay of teeth now is greater than formerly, and is due to a degeneracy of the system, living faster, etc.

Dr. Parsons remarked that children's teeth decayed more now than forty years ago, from luxurious habits and violations of Nature's laws. As long as hygienic laws were disobeyed Dentists would have plenty to do.

Dr. Thomas thought the decay of the teeth was due to leaving out the phosphates from our food, which phosphates form the hard part of our teeth. "The Fathers eat grapes and set their children's teeth on edge." In a few generations he would look for no teeth at all.

Dr. Ford stated that he made his childrens' teeth a specialty, keeping away from them deleterious substances and requiring them to take care of their teeth. His children (14) of all ages now had perfectly sound teeth.

Dr. Tigner asked what was the remedy for elongation of the teeth, caused by chronic inflammation of the membrane and necrosis?

Dr. Parsons thought it was a case of exostosis and not of necrosis.

Dr. Holland related several cases in his practice bearing upon Dr. Tigner's, and gave a verbal and facial demonstration of how a case might be produced.

Dr. Lowrance called attention to the case of a child of two years old, with a [illegible] and asked should the teeth be extracted.

Dr. Ford related the circumstances of a case in which the patient was a young lady of thirty-five or forty years of age.

Dr. Thornton mentioned the case of an infant fourteen months old, one of whose teeth was decayed to the gum and [illegible].

Dr. Tigner thought the teeth should be extracted at once.

Dr. Holland addressed the Society upon the importance of procuring reliable statistics, especially upon the decay of teeth, etc.

Dr. Lowrance agreed fully with Dr. Holland in its importance and benefit.

The Society adjourned to meet at the Kimball House ball room at 9 A. M. to day. During the day [illegible] will be given.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Social Reunion at Knights Templar Hall.

Presentation of Jewel.

The Delegation for Savannah, etc.

Last evening the beautiful hall of the Knights Templar was thrown open to a few friends. The object of the reunion was to say good-bye to the delegation which left at one o'clock last night to attend the Grand Commandery of the State at Savannah, to convene next Wednesday morning.

Besides the members of the Commandery, a number of ladies and friends were present.

At ten o'clock the Commandery was called to order by Grand Master W. D. Luckie, who, in a few pertinent remarks, stated that the present informal reunion was to bid farewell to Knights about to leave, and to witness the presentation of a Jewel on behalf of the Commandery to Past Grand Commander Tuller, as a mark of their love and esteem.

The Jewel was very gracefully presented by William Goodnow, Esq. He stated that the Jewel was given as a grateful appreciation of his eminent services in behalf of Masonry in this State, and asked him to accept it as a tribute of their regard for him as citizen, and of their love for him as a brother.

Mr. Tuller responded with considerable feeling. He said that in helping to build up Masonry in this State he had sought no reward but the approbation of his own conscience.

He owes much to the interest and assistance manifested in the work by the Knights of this Commandery, and asked for their present Grand Commander the same courtesy and kindness they had shown him. He would always prize the lodge as a work of their affection.

THE JEWEL.

The jewel consists of the following parts:

Triangle of gold, the sides of which bear the motto: "In hoc signo vinces," letters of black enamel, the sides beautifully scrolled. Suspended in the triangle is a cross, enameled in red, with rays of sun in gold behind.

On reverse side of triangle is engraved: "To Past E. C. W. H. Tuller, K. T., from Cœur de Lion Commandery, Atlanta, Ga, A. D. 1870 to 1874."

On reverse side of cross: "Made by Everett & Quigley, Atlanta, Ga."

Above the triangle are two heavy golden scrolls, separated by a black ribbon with white borders. The scrolls are beautifully engraved; whole is suspended from a red ribbon.

THE REUNION.

After the presentation the company spent a few hours in social pleasure. A tempting repast of ice-cream, strawberries and cake was served up and enjoyed. Dancing lent its attraction, the music being furnished by Dr. S. G Holland and T. F. Lowe. The former also sang several of his inimitable songs.

The Sir Knights who left for Savannah are:

W H Tuller, Grand Cœur of the State of Georgia; W D Luckie, W H Hancock, Gen G T Anderson, Amos Fox, J D Wing, G B Chamberlin, Judge S Lawrence, Don Bain, B F Moore, L H Davis, Miller Grieve, E A Knight, J B Bridges, Sidney Dell, Wm Mackle, C T Watson, F B Palmer, Rev E W Warren, W T Coleman, T A Morris, John C Whitner, R M Rose.

Dr. Calhoun's Liver Pills.

I AM engaged in the Manufacture of the Celebrated Family Medicine, known as the Calhoun Liver and Anti-Bilious Pills, under the supervision and assistance of Dr. Calhoun himself. This Pill has been in use for the last thirty-five years, and has taken precedence over all other Family Preparations, by all that have used them. Thousands would certify to their great value if necessary. One fact should supersede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calhoun has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 20 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incident to this climate. With but few exceptions, they have all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing to say, during that long period not a solitary death occurred under his treatment. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

I am now prepared to fill orders from Druggists, Merchants and others. All orders sent me shall receive prompt attention. There is no type of FEVER, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, RHEUMATISM, CHOLERA MORBUS, BILLIOUSNESS and SICK HEADACHE, or other diseases of a Southern climate, but yields readily to this preparation.

For sale by all druggists.

Price 50 cents a Box.

None genuine unless it bears the signature of N. C. Williams and picture of Dr. Calhoun.

BAD BLOOD!

"A corrupt tree," saith the Inspired Volume, "bringeth forth not good fruit," nor can corrupt blood impart health, beauty and good flesh, or spirits. "The Blood is Life," and health can only be enjoyed in its full perfection where the blood is kept in a pure and uncorrupted state, hence the necessity of pure blood, to give health, beauty, buoyant spirits, long life and happiness.

AN IMPURE CONDITION OF THE BLOOD

manifests itself in different forms of disease, such as Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald-Head, Ring-Worms, Pimples, Blotches, Spots, Eruptions, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Rough Skin, Scurf, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Fever Sores, White Swellings, Tumors, Old Sores or Swellings, Syphilitic Affections of the Skin, Throat and Bones, Ulcers of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs and Uterus.

In this condition of things something is needed AT ONCE TO CLEANSE THE BLOOD, and neutralize the insidious poison that as it courses through the veins, sowing seeds of death with every pulsation.

Dr. Pemberton's Compound Extract of Stillingia (or Queen Delight) will positively effect this desideratum, expelling every trace of disease from the blood and system, and leaving the skin

SOFT, FAIR AND BEAUTIFUL.

For all diseases of the BLOOD, LIVER and KIDNEYS, this Great Vegetable Alterative is without a rival. It will cure any CHRONIC or LONG STANDING DISEASE whose real or direct cause is BAD BLOOD. RHEUMATISM, PAINS OF LIMBS or or BONES, CONSTITUTIONS BROKEN DOWN by Mercurial or other poisons, are all cured by it. For SYPHILIS, or SYPHILIC TAINT, there is nothing equal to it. A trial will prove it. It is a most useful Spring and Fall Purifier of the Blood.

Its safety and innocence have been fully tested, so that it may be administered to the most tender infant.

Beware of counterfeits and substitutes. Try the Genuine Extract QUEEN'S DELIGHT, prepared by Dr. J. S. PEMBERTON, Atlanta, Ga.

For sale by druggists.

STOP, READ, REFLECT AND ACT, BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE!

"DR. S. B. COLLINS'" PAINLESS

OPIUM ANTIDOTE.

Is a perfect and painless cure for THE HABITUAL USE OF OPIUM, in any of its forms, whether as MORPHINE, LAUDANUM, ELIXER, or GUM OPIUM.

It Positively Produces a Permanent Cure

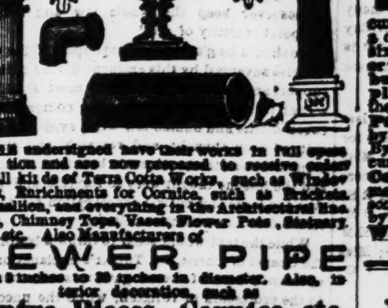

IT is strange yet true, that as a rule it is the brightest intellects, the best members of society that become addicted to this diseased appetite. A habit which makes them slaves, beclouds their minds, ruins their dispositions, and gives them in their more natural moments a hatred of self as well a feeling that everybody despises them—to such an extent that society has no charms. But thanks to the Giver of all good this, morbid, terrible habit, and degraded condition, as well as all of the distre and feeling for opiates in any form is soon removed by this remarkable antidote, entirely so, and the weakened body and mind are invigorated, given renewed health until love and hope take the place of despondency and doubt. Though you may not be afflicted with the habit of using MORPHINE, LAUDANUM, or other forms of OPIUM, some friend may be, and you know it not, therefore let me ask you, in the name of suffering humanity to pass this on. By so doing you may reap the reward of those who do good. DELAY NOT.
